NOTE VERBALE

The Ministry of Culture, Sports and Tourism of the Republic of Korea presents its compliments to the stakeholders in the field of tourism, including travel agencies and MICE organizers worldwide and wishes to provide the following assurances regarding the current situation in the Republic of Korea.

The Government of the Republic of Korea is committed to ensuring the safety and security of all visitors. While recent events may have raised concerns, we wish to emphasize that the Republic of Korea remains a stable destination, and the situation in major tourist areas is carefully monitored and managed by the relevant authorities.

We have implemented enhanced safety measures across all regions frequented by tourists and international events. These include increased coordination between national security forces and local authorities to ensure that visitors can enjoy their experiences without disruption.

The Government is working closely with global partners and domestic stakeholders to provide real-time updates and any necessary support to travellers. We are confident that all visitors and event participants will feel safe and welcomed, and we stand ready to assist in addressing any concerns you may have.

The Ministry of Culture, Sports and Tourism of the Republic of Korea avails itself of this opportunity to renew the assurances of its highest consideration and looks forward to continued collaboration with our valued partners in promoting the Republic of Korea as a premier destination.
